1. Message of the Day – From the C.O.

“Speaking as I do from the security of my deep air conditioned slit trench, I say to you “We can take it!”

2. Decorations and awards.

The Commanding Officer has graciously approved the immediate award of THE MOST HIGHLY DEROGATORY ORDER OF THE IRREMOVABLE FINGER (Patron Pilot Officer Prune) to the 292 Signals Section; the official citation reads:-

“Whilst all 292 Squadron personnel yearned to hear the strains of the B.B.C’s glamorous girl announcers, our Signals Section worked long hours, in their endeavour to get a sound out of the Welfare Wireless; when finally they decided it was beyond them, they displayed fortitude and the highest devotion to duty when they packed the aforementioned wireless into a case and despatched it to an M.U., for repair. Thus upholding the highest tradition of Pilot Officer Prune’s Order.”

3. Bounds

The current rumour that Blighty is out of bounds to all British troops is amended as follows:- India IS in bounds. It is further notified that English is still spoken there.

4. Medical

All Group Ops personnel suffering from bed-sores are to report to the M.I. Room immediately, for Anti-Charpoy Treatment.

5. Camp Dhurzi

All personnel who handed in Bush Shirts to the Camp Dhurzi for alteration, before last Christmas, are notified that it is hoped to have them ready before they are tour-expired.

6. Flying Discipline.

The Wing Commander would be grateful if pilots when flying at a height of 15,000 to 24,000 feet, would refrain from spitting. This habit is considered unhygienic and is vulgarly called "Spitting from a great height".

7. Extracts from P.O.Rs – Serial MO. 1/55 (RAF/P1.)

The undermentioned officer has been awarded Driving ??pus for the period of 1.4.44 to 31.9.44 (inclusive), in accordance with K.R. para. 3455:-
